Michigan Football in Depth

The Wolverines $7.95 . . .

This fascinating story of Michigan football gives you a very personal look at the players who built a football legend. 423 pages.

Man in Motion
$5.95 . . .an intimate story of the most successful coach in college football, Bo Schembechler. Written by Joe Falls.

Michigan's 1975 Football Outlook

Defense has been the key to Michigan's football success and Coach Bo Schembechler will be counting on this strength more than ever during the early part of the 1975 season. "Our defense will have to play superb football until our young, inexperienced offense has the chance to develop," Bo insists.

Here are some of Bo's observations on players and the 1975 season:

"Tim Davis (middle guard) played the finest defensive game I have ever seen last year against Ohio State."

"Don Dufek has size, power, quickness and should be an All-American."

"Freshmen will play an important role for us this year, especially at quarterback, tight end, fullback and defensive end."

"Jim Smith is the finest receiver we have had during my six years at Michigan."

"Defense will dictate how well we do, especially early in the season. Dan Jilek is the best offside end we've had in years and Jeff Perlinger is one of the finest tackles we've had. I have confidence in the defense."

"We expect to be contenders again for the Big Ten title. We always figure to be in the running for the championship."

"There are no two better runners on one team in college football than Gordon Bell and Rob Lytle."

Here's a breakdown on the 1975 Michigan football team by position:

OFFENSIVE BACKS

Bell (1048 yds) and Lytle (802 yds) return at tailback. Smith adds new dimension at wingback. Fullback still open. Scott Corbin and Kevin King rated best off spring drills, but Phil Andrews was ill and will contend. Freshmen Russell Davis and Frank Bell are prospects to help here.

Mark Elzinga figures to open at quarterback against Wisconsin. Backup help could be all freshmen. Five QBs were recruited this year.

RECEIVERS

Keith Johnson at split end and Jim Smith, switched to wingback, are solid and experienced. Smith could be one of the finest receivers in Michigan history. George Pryzgodski, Pete Traber and Dave Harding are tight ends, but freshmen could help here, notably Gene Johnson and Mark Schmerge.

OFFENSIVE LINE

Steve King returns for fifth year and rates as one of the best tackles in the conference. Guard Kirk Lewis (Academic All-American) only other starter back. Jim Czirr could be solid center. Other tackle position up for grabs, while three sophs battle for the left guard spot.

DEFENSIVE LINE

Four starters return. Three were All-Big Ten picks — end Dan Jilek, tackle Jeff Perlinger, guard Tim Davis. Greg Morton starter at tackle. Mike Holmes and punter John Anderson top end candidates. Rick Koschalk, Bob Lang, John Hennessy form good depth. Strongest unit on team.

LINEBACKERS

Both starters lost, but lettermen Calvin O'Neal and Dave Devich (third and fourth last year) return. O'Neal played about half the time. Soph Rex Mackall and Jerry Vogele form depth. Could be solid unit.

SECONDARY

All-Big Ten wolf Don Dufek among the best, but danger is inexperience at other spots. Dwight Hicks succeeds Dave Brown at safety and is excellent prospect as soph. Jim Bolden, Kurt Kampe, Derek Howard and Jim Pickens are all talented athletes. Should develop into another in a series of outstanding Michigan secondary units with experience.

PLAYER SWITCHES

Tight end Vogele and defensive end Mackall both to linebacker and this proved highly successful in spring. Jim Smith at wingback will give junior speedster opportunity to run as well as catch the ball. Basketball player Rick White, a tight end two years ago, is back out for football as a split end and could help. Max Richardson, exciting freshman tailback last fall, goes to wingback.

KEY NEWCOMERS

DWIGHT HICKS — Lettered as freshman and appears ready to handle vital safety spot. Good speed, won award as top frosh player.

DEREK HOWARD — Another frosh letterman who will start at shortside halfback. Has great potential.

JOHN ANDERSON — Regular punter moves from tight end to defensive end. Just a sophomore with fine ability.

SPECIALISTS

PUNTING — John Anderson (38.5 average)

KICKOFF — Anderson and Bob Wood

PLACE KICKING — Wood heads several prospects. Still open.

KICKOFF RETURNS — Bell, Lytle and freshman Harlan Huckleby

PUNT RETURNS — Hicks, Smith, Bell, possibly a freshman.

Meet Coach Bo Schembechler

Michigan football coach Glenn Edward (Bo) Schembechler enters the 1975 season with the finest regular-season record of any active coach in college football — 58-5-1. That amazing winning percentage of .914 has been built around an offense that seldom makes a mistake and a defense of unusual proportions.

Schembechler's teams over the last six seasons lead the nation in scoring defense (7.8 points), rank fourth in defense against the rush (110.6 yards per game), third in overall defense (228.1 yards per game). Bo's teams have turned the ball over fewer times than any major college team during the last six seasons.

In 1974 Michigan was tops in scoring defense, second in rushing defense and third in total defense. Offensively, it was fifth in rushing, tenth in scoring and 14th in total offense.

Just the 13th coach in Michigan football history, Bo has guided the Wolverines to five Big Ten championships in his six seasons here. Michigan is the only team in the nation to be ranked among the Top Ten in the final polls during that period.

A national Coach of the Year (1969) and Big Ten Coach of the Year (1972), Bo conducts a highly successful Annual High School Coaching Clinic, is guest lecturer at several of the top national clinics, was head coach of the East squad in last year's Shrine Game, and was honorary chairman of the Washtenaw County March of Dimes campaign.

Schembechler (pronounced SHEM-beck-lur), brought a solid football background to Michigan. In his six seasons as head football coach at Miami of Ohio his teams posted a 40-17-3 overall record, and a 27-8-1 record in the Mid-American Conference. His teams won two MAC co-championships, finished second twice and tied for third once. He has never coached a losing team.

Schembechler was the fourth straight head coach at Miami to take over a Big Ten team. Woody Hayes (Ohio State), Ara Parseghian (Northwestern), and John Pont (Indiana, Northwestern), coached Miami teams since 1949. He replaced Bump Elliott, now Iowa's Athletic Director, as head coach at Michigan and is only the fourth head coach of the Wolverines since Fritz Crisler was appointed in 1938.

Voted MAC Coach of the Year in 1965 and Ohio Coach of the Year in 1966, Bo engineered upsets of Northwestern in 1964 (28-27) and Indiana in 1966 (20-10).

Schembechler, who graduated from Miami in 1951 and received a master's degree in education from Ohio State in 1952, has an extensive coaching background. He started as a graduate assistant under Hayes at Ohio State in 1951, then served two years in the Army.

He was a line coach at Presbyterian College in 1954, a line coach at Bowling Green in 1955, and joined Parseghian's staff at Northwestern in 1956. Schembechler rejoined Hayes at Ohio State in 1958 and served five seasons as line coach before taking over the head job at Miami in 1963.

The former Barberton, Ohio prep all-stater was an offensive tackle at Miami for three years, playing under George Blackburn and Hayes. He also was an outstanding lefthanded pitcher for Miami. He was a teammate and roommate of John Pont on the 1950 Miami football team.

Bo and his wife, Millie, have four children: Chip, 19, Geoffrey, 17, Matthew, 16, and Glenn E., III, 6.

Michigan's Varsity Coaching Staff

Gary Moeller

GARY MOELLER, Defensive Coordinator

Gary Moeller has the prime responsibility of defensive coordinator, with the additional duty of coaching the linebackers. Formerly, Moeller coached the defensive backs and ends.

Moeller has never been associated with a losing football team. An outstanding lineman at Lima (Ohio) High, Moeller was a center and linebacker at Ohio State. He played on the 1961 team that won the Big Ten championship and was ranked second in the final national polls. Moeller then captained the 1962 Buckeyes.

He taught at Union High in Grand Rapids and played football with Grand Rapids Blazers in 1963 before becoming assistant coach at Bellefontaine High in Ohio. Moeller was appointed head coach in 1965 and won two straight Miami Valley League titles, posting a two-season mark of 13-4-3.

Moeller then joined Schembechler's staff at Miami in 1967 and moved to Michigan with Bo in 1969.

He is married to the former Ann Morrison of Lima, Ohio and they have four children, Susie, 14, Amy, 12, Andy, 11, and Molly, 4.

Jack Harbaugh

JACK HARBAUGH, Defensive Backs

Jack Harbaugh came to Michigan from Iowa in 1973 as coach of the defensive backs.

Harbaugh is a native of Crestline, O., where he was an All-State football and baseball player. He went on to Bowling Green where he once again played football and baseball, and was drafted by the Buffalo Bills football team.

He received both his bachelor's and master's degrees from Bowling Green and coached at Canton, Perrysburg and Eaton high schools. He went to Xenia High in 1966, where he was conference coach of the year.

In 1967 Harbaugh took an assistant's job at Morehead State and stayed there a year before returning to Bowling Green where he coached three seasons before going to Iowa to take over the defensive backs.

He is married and he and his wife, Jackie, have three children, John, 13, Jim, 11, and Joan, 7.

CHUCK STOBART, Offensive Backfield

Chuck Stobart

Charles (Chuck) Stobart, Michigan's offensive backfield coach, was the starting quarterback at Ohio University for most of his three years, and a standout infielder for two seasons. He has both a bachelor's degree in education and masters in school administration from his alma mater. He was a member of Omicron Delta Kappa, national men's leadership honorary, and Kappa Delta Pi, education honorary. He was picked senior athlete of year 1958.

In 1959, Stobart coached Berne Union High School to an 8-1 record, and moved on the Gallipolis High School where his team was 9-0 and won the Southeastern Ohio Championship in 1960. He was named the district coach of the year.

From 1961 through 1964, Stobart was football coach at Mt. Vernon, where his teams developed rapidly, winning 17 of their last 18 games following two losing seasons. His 1963 team was unbeaten and untied in nine games, and ranked ninth in the state poll. He helped coach the South team in the 1964 Ohio North-South All-Star game.

Stobart moved into the college coaching ranks in 1965 as offensive backfield and head baseball coach at Marshall. He took a similar position at the University of Cincinnati in 1966, before joining 'Bo' Schembechler at Miami in 1967.

His wife is the former Diana June Chancey, a native of Ripley, West Va. The couple has three children, Janna, 18, David, 15, and Greg, 11.

PAUL SCHUDEL, Offensive Interior Line

Paul Schudel

Paul Schudel, a former player and graduate assistant at Miami of Ohio under Bo Schembechler, has rejoined his former boss as a member of the Michigan football staff.

Schudel replaced Elliot Uzelac, who resigned after the 1974 season to accept the head coaching position at Western Michigan.

Schudel served as offensive line coach at Syracuse during 1970 for former Michigan assistant Frank Maloney. Prior to that, Schudel spend two years as offensive line coach and offensive coordinator at William and Mary, two years as offensive line coach at Colorado State, two years in the same duties at New Hampshire and two years as a graduate assistant at Miami.

Schudel graduated from Swanton (Ohio) High in 1962 after earning 12 letters. He played three years as offensive tackle for Schembechler at Miami and was tri-captain his senior year and earned Academic All-American honors. Schudel graduated in 1966 with a Bachelor of Science Degree with a major in mathematics and received his Master of Education Degree from Miami in 1968.

Schudel is married to the former Mary Burkhart of Perrysburg, Ohio. They have two children, Jennifer, age 5, and Paul, 3.

JERRY HANLON, Offensive Line

Jerry Hanlon

Jerry Hanlon coaches Michigan' offensive line. Hanlon, from North Bend, Ohio was an offensive halfback during the 1953-55 seasons at Miami. He played halfback on the Redskin teams that won two Mid-American Conference titles. His college coach was Ara Parseghian.

As a player, Hanlon's college teams achieved a 24-2-1 record, while his teams at Taylor High School were 25-7-1.

Following graduation from Miami, Hanlon returned to Taylor for a year as assistant football coach, then coached at Canton Catholic, Youngstown and Cleveland St. Edwards before joining the staff at the University of Dayton in 1965. The following year he joined Schembechler.

He has been in charge of Michigan's offensive line since 1969. Those lines have keyed an assault on most team rushing records. Four All-American linemen have been developed under Hanlon in five seasons.

Hanlon is married to the former Anne Hatfield, a native of Norma, Tennessee. The couple has two sons, Scott, 17, and Mickey, 15, and a daughter, Kelly Ann, 7.

Tirrel Burton

TIRREL BURTON, Offensive Ends

Tirrel Burton joined the Wolverines' football staff in 1970. During his first two seasons his frosh teams were 4-2, producing many players for the varsity.

Burton joins one of his former Miami of Ohio teammates, Jerry Hanlon, on the 'M' staff. Burton has a long standing relationship with Miami, having played his high school ball in Oxford, then becoming a star halfback and hurdler for the Redskins and later coaching.

Burton twice was named All-Mid-American Conference and in his senior year averaged 8.8 yards per carry and scored 84 points. Burton also ran for the Miami track team and reached the NCAA finals in 1955 in the 220-yard hurdles.

After graduating from Miami in 1956 Burton played a season for the Ottawa Rough Riders. He then moved to Cincinnati where he taught and coached junior high football from 1957 to 1963 and earned his master's degree from Miami.

In 1963 Burton became assistant football coach at Withrow in Cincinnati and two years later became head coach at Hughes for two years. Burton then was named offensive backfield coach at Central State of Ohio. He held that post for a year, then returned to Miami as an assistant for one year before joining Bo Schembechler's staff.

Burton and his wife, Sue, have two children, Ellen, 14, and Mark, 12.

TOM REED, Defensive Line

Tom Reed

Tom Reed, formerly an assistant coach at Arizona and an offensive back on two of Bo Schembechler's championship football teams at Miami of Ohio, joined the Michigan staff in 1974 as defensive line coach.

Reed took over the defensive line job, an assignment held previously by Frank Maloney, who resigned to accept the head football coaching job at Syracuse University.

The 30-year old Reed coached the defensive secondary in 1973 for Arizona's co-championship team. He coached under Jim Young, former defensive coordinator at Michigan.

Reed earned three letters at Miami as an offensive back. He received his bachelor of science degree from Miami in 1967 and coached under Schembechler for two years as a graduate assistant. He received his masters degree in education in 1969 and then spent four years as a defensive line coach at the University of Akron and three of those teams were rated in the top ten. He married the former Cathee Herman of Dover, O.

Bill McCartney

BILL McCARTNEY, Defensive Ends

Bill McCartney, who coached Dearborn Divine Child to state championships in football and basketball, joined the Michigan staff as defensive end coach in 1974.

McCartney, 34, replaced George Mans who resigned to accept the head football coaching job at Eastern Michigan University.

McCartney earned 11 letters at Riverview High School where he captained the football and basketball squads and played baseball. He attended the University of Missouri on a football scholarship and lettered three seasons as a linebacker. He played in two Orange Bowl games and was named second team All-Big Eight.

At Divine Child, McCartney compiled a 30-5 won-loss record in four years as head football coach. His teams won three Detroit Catholic League Championships and two state titles (1971, 1973). His basketball teams at Holy Redeemer and Divine Child were 157-49, winning the Detroit Catholic title in 1969 and the state Class B title in 1973.

McCartney and his wife, Lynne, have three boys, Michael 10, Thomas 9, Mark 3, and a girl Kristyn, 6.

DENNIS BROWN,
Backfield Coach

Dennis Brown

Dennis Brown, in his fourth season as varsity reserve coach, has had a long association with Michigan. He was the Wolverines' starting quarterback in 1967 and 1968. In 1968 he led the Big Ten in total offense and was named All-Big Ten, leading 'M' to an 8-2 record and second place in the conference.

A graduate of Lincoln Park High, Brown came to Michigan and stepped into the starting quarterback role midway through his junior year. In his first game, he established the Big Ten total offense mark, since broken.

Brown spent one season as a graduate assistant to Bo Schembechler, in 1970, before going to Dartmouth as the freshman coach for a year.

Brown married the former Carla Shinn of Lincoln Park. They have a son, Aaron, who will be 2 in January.

Jed Hughes

JED HUGHES, Assistant Coach
Linebackers

Jed Hughes joined the Michigan football staff full time in 1974 after serving on the Stanford staff for two seasons including its Rose Bowl team of 1972. He was a starter for two years in both football and baseball at Gettysburg College where he received his BA in biology and physical education in 1970. He received his masters in Education from Stanford in 1970 and is working on a Ph.D. in education administration.

During his high school years at Newark Academy he was a three-time all-state baseball player.

Hughes coaches the linebackers and is in charge of the off-season conditioning program. He married the former Carol Reaner of Gettysburg, Pa.

Michigan 24, Iowa 7

September 14 Ann Arbor Attendance 76,802

Cocaptain Dennis Franklin watched from the sidelines, suffering from a virus, as Mark Elzinga started at quarterback in his first varsity game and directed an attack that netted 349 yards, extending the home unbeaten streak to 29, ruining the Iowa coaching debut of Bob Commings.

Soph Rob Lytle led rushing with 86 yards. Gil Chapman provided the big play, a 38-yard twisting run to the 5 to set up first TD, gained 55 yards in 6 attempts, caught 2 passes for 34 yards, including 10-yard TD strike from Elzinga.

Michigan defense never allowed Hawks inside 39-yard line until final 5 minutes of game and yielded just 37 yards rushing all day. Elzinga had not played full game in two years, not participating as freshman and being held out for entire sophomore year.

September 21 Ann Arbor Attendance 91,203

Dennis Franklin, back from the sick list, hit on 11 of 16 passes for 115 yards, rushed for 69 more, recovered a fumble in the end zone for a TD and David Brown returned a punt a school record 88 yards to score as Michigan won for the first time in four games over a Big 8 foe.

Soph split end Jim Smith caught five passes, a couple of them spectacular, for 50 yards, and tight end Greg DenBoer caught a 5-yard TD pass from Franklin. DenBoer's TD was set up by Gordon Bell's 25-yard run.

Senior defensive end Larry Johnson injured his knee and was lost for the season. Chuck Heater, playing his second game at fullback after two seasons at tailback, rushed for 74 yards, Lytle had 66.

Michigan 52, Navy 0

September 28 Ann Arbor Attendance 104,232

Navy, upset winner over Penn St. the previous week 7-6, ran into a buzz-saw as Michigan ran its total in three games to 221 plays without a turnover. Third straight win jumped Wolverines to 4th in AP Poll as second largest crowd in Michigan history saw the Band Day game.

Michigan's speed was evident as Gordon Bell scored 3 times, tackle Jeff Perlinger set up a TD with a pass intereception in the Navy backfield, Franklin completed 5 of 6 passes for 85 yards, and Rob Lytle, used mostly in the second half, gained 101 yards in 15 carries.

"We got inundated," said Navy coach George Welsh.

Michigan 21, Michigan State 7

October 12 Ann Arbor 104,682

Michigan's defense was outstanding, scoring once, providing good field position on a drizzling afternoon, then giving the offense a chance to score just before halftime against MSU.

Defensive end Dan Jilek tackled Spartan punter Jim Birney, who had fumbled the center snap. He lost the ball and Jilek recovered it in the end zone for a 14-0 'M' lead. Just before halftime Dennis Franklin, who later suffered bruised ribs and had to leave the game, passed 44 yards to Jim Smith for a TD.

State was checked with 142 net yards and had only three first downs and 25 yards rushing in the first half as Tim Davis was brilliant at middle guard. He suffered an ankle injury in the game.

Michigan 24, Wisconsin 20

October 19 Madison Attendance 78,911

Michigan scored three of four times it had the football in the second half to spoil upset bid by Wisconsin before an all-time record Camp Randall crowd of 78,911. Tied 7-7 at halftime, Michigan drove 70 yards to score in the 3rd period, went 62 yards early in 4th period. Another 66-yard drive set up Mike Lantry's 31-yard field goal for 24-14 lead.

Wisconsin fought back to score with 3:25 left and with 11 seconds left a long pass just missed on 'M's' 35 before Dave Brown intercepted on final play.

QB Dennis Franklin, and Chuck Heater, who scored Michigan's first TD on a 22-yard run, led Wolverines. Franklin hit Greg DenBoer on an 8-yard TD pass for the lead points. Heater rushed for 101 yards. Wisconsin gained 206 yards rushing, more than any other team posted against 'M' during the season.

Michigan 49, Minnesota 0

October 26 Ann Arbor Attendance 96,284

Michigan rushed for 521 yards, mostly by tailbacks Rob Lytle and Gordon Bell, to match its biggest win ever over Minnesota. Lytle gained 144 in his first 17 carries before giving way to Bell who ran for 134. Lytle's total for the day was 158, while Dennis Franklin completed 6 of 7 passes for 99 yards, including 22-yard TD pass to Jim Smith.

Mark Elzinga replaced Franklin at QB and scored on 49-yard option run. 'M' defense stopped Gophers with 7 first downs, 100 yards rushing, 49 in air. Win gave 'M' 38-1-1 regular season mark over last 40 games as 96,284 saw the Little Brown Jug game.

Michigan 21, Indiana 7

November 2 Bloomington Attendance 32,873

Mark Elzinga got his second starting assignment of the season as Dennis Franklin had an ankle injury, but the senior cocaptain had to come off the bench to lead touchdown drives of 93 and 80 in the second period, then Michigan had to fight off a fired up team of Hoosiers.

Indiana made it 14-7 in the fourth period, but a 27-yard run by Gordon Bell, after 'M's' defense had stopped Indiana on a fourth-down gamble at midfield, set up Gil Chapman's yard TD run to ice the win.

Bell scored twice and gained 159 yards, but Michigan lost two fumbles. Linebacker Steve Strinko had 11 solo tackles, while Greg Morton three times nailed Indiana runners for losses to spearhead the 'M' defense.

Michigan 14, Illinois 6

November 9 Champaign Attendance 60,670

Michigan took undisputed possession of first place in the Big Ten as Michigan State upset Ohio State and the Wolverines defeated Illinois. The first-half saw Michigan overpower Illini in yards gained (259-25), first downs (16-1) and offensive plays (60-15). All this produced was 14-0 lead.

Mike Gow's 45-yard punt return for touchdown made it close, though the Illini missed on a two-point conversion try. A successful onside kick kept the pressure on Michigan's defense and on the first play Illinois nearly connected on a pass in the end zone, but Jeff Chrystal was just outside the end zone as he caught the ball.

Bell continued fine running with a 142 yards. Tragedy marked the game for Illinois as its defensive end, Greg Williams, was shot and killed on Friday night.

Michigan 51, Purdue 0

November 16 Ann Arbor Attendance 88,902

Michigan clinched share of Big Ten championship with biggest win ever over a Purdue team. Mike Lantry kicked three field goals (43, 32, 35 yards) to tie school mark. Gordon Bell rushed for 166 yards and Dennis Franklin completed 7 of 12 passes for 149 yards.

Lantry's six extra points ran his career total to 109, a school record. Franklin reinjured his ankle in third period and was held out the rest of the game. He had fired touchdown passes of 52 yards to Jim Smith and 23 yards to Gil Chapman.

Ohio State 12, Michigan 10

November 23 Columbus Attendance 88,243

Three long field goals (47, 45 and 43 yards) and a shorter one (25) by Ohio State's Tom Klaban, ruined Michigan's perfect season and stopped unbeaten string at 21. Michigan took a 10-0 lead in the first period as Dennis Franklin passed 42 yards to Gil Chapman and Mike Lantry booted a 37-yard field goal.

Michigan had a chance to win it in the final 16 seconds but Lantry's 33-yard field goal missed by inches to left. Michigan's defense, led by Tim Davis' 17 tackles, allowed OSU inside the 26 just once in the game.

President Ford, visiting Soviet Union, asked for the score and expressed disappointment over the results. He asked for more details and was told Michigan had the statistical edge, but an aide explained, "The President again expressed disappointment."

Meet Michigan's President

Robben W. Fleming became the ninth president of The University of Michigan on Jan. 1, 1968, after three years as chancellor of the Madison campus of the University of Wisconsin.

Fleming was designated as one of 44 national leaders who "contribute most significantly to the thoughts and actions of American higher learning" in a poll last year. He recently completed terms as president of the Association of American Universities and member of the board of the Council on Financial Aid to Education.

He serves on the executive committee of the National Association of State Universities and Land-Grant Colleges, and the Association of American Universities. He also is a trustee of the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching, and the board of the American Council on Education.

Nationally recognized as a labor arbitrator, President Fleming is a professor of law at Michigan and has served on the law faculties at Illinois and Wisconsin and a consultant to various government agencies.

He holds honorary degrees from 17 colleges and universities.

The University he heads was ranked in the "Top 5" of America's universities in a recent national survey of professional school deans which found that U-M has 13 fields in the top 10 among 18 fields surveyed — the best overall record.

Fleming competed in football, basketball and baseball at Paw Paw (Ill.) High. A knee injury ended his football career, but he did win three letters in basketball and two in track at Beloit (Wis.) College.

Canham's Marketing Policy Pays Off at the Gate

Don Canham was appointed Michigan's fifth athletic director in 1968 and since then the Wolverines have experienced the most dramatic six-year growth in football attendance in the school's history.

During Canham's first season the Wolverines averaged 67,991 fans for six home games, but in 1974 that figure had skyrocketed to an impressive 93,684. Here's a breakdown of Michigan's attendance figures for both six and seven-home game schedules:

| Year | Attendance | Average |
|---|---|---|
| Six Games | | |
| 1968 | 407,948 | 67,991 |
| 1969 | 428,780 | 71,360 |
| 1970 | 476,165 | 79,360 |
| 1972 | 513,398 | 85,566 |
| 1974 | 563,105 | 93,684 |
| Seven Games | | |
| 1971 | 564,376 | 80,622 |
| 1973 | 595,162 | 85,023 |

Of course, Bo Schembechler's record of 58-5-1 and two Rose Bowl appearances have played a large role in this steady attendance growth. But Michigan has had Big Ten and National Championship teams in the past, in years before television and when the entertainment dollar was not the object of such intense competition from professional leagues. "Even the best product on the shelf has to be promoted," insists Canham, who has brought a new marketing approach to intercollegiate football.

Canham's philosophy has been to "make it easy for a fan to buy a ticket." The cornerstone of this approach has been a steady increase in ticket information sent direct to the homes of potential customers. From a basic list of 'M' Alumni in 1968, direct mail ticket coupons are now sent to more than a million families in Michigan, Indiana and Ohio. Canham has directed a vast newspaper advertising campaign and put the Michigan football message between the covers of such magazines as Time, Fortune, Sports Illustrated, Business News — all on a regional basis.

But marketing has been only part of Canham's fast-moving administration. He has spent more than $3 million on new buildings and facilities, and this entire amount has been financed through athletic department revenues. The budget has grown from around $2 million to more than $4 million in six years.

Some of the capital expenditures include two artificial grass football fields ($600,000), conversion of Yost Field House into a 8,000-seat hockey arena ($500,000), indoor track-tennis building ($1,000,000), outdoor track ($200,000), football service building ($380,000) and improvements in Michigan Stadium ($500,000).

Additionally, the old hockey rink was converted into an intramural building at a cost of $140,000 and given to The University for student use.

And through promotions and retirements, Canham had to appoint new head coaches in football, basketball, hockey, tennis, wrestling, golf and track. Michigan's coaching staff has led the Wolverines to 22 Big Ten team championships in the last seven years.

Canham was uniquely qualified for his job. From Oak Park, Ill. he captained Michigan's track team and won the Big Ten and NCAA high jump titles. Graduating in 1941, he entered the Air Force, rising from private to captain in 42 months. He coached at Kankakee, Ill., became an assistant track coach at Michigan and finally head coach, winning 12 conference titles in 12 seasons.

During his coaching career, he built a highly successful sports equipment company which was placed in an irrevocable trust upon his appointment as director in 1968.

Marcus Plant
Faculty Representative

Marcus Plant has been Michigan's faculty representative to the Big Ten since 1955 and has served on the Board in Control of Intercollegiate Athletics since 1949.

Plant has been a leader in amateur athletics nationally, serving as president of the NCAA (1967-68) and currently is a member of the Olympic executive committee.

Don Lund
Associate Director

Don Lund was a nine-letterwinner at Michigan in basketball, football and baseball from 1942 through 1945. He went on to play major league baseball and returned to Michigan in 1959 to succeed Ray Fisher as the Wolverines baseball coach. He compiled an 83-55-3 record through 1962, winning the Big Ten title in 1961 and the National Championship in 1962. Lund then became director of the Detroit Tigers farm system until returning to Michigan in 1970 as associate athletic director.

1975 Band Shows Set

Michigan's highly acclaimed Marching Band has scheduled another season of unique and diversified entertainment with seven different shows scheduled through the football season in Michigan Stadium.

The shows range from a salute to 'Bo' and his Wolverines to themes connected with the nation's biecentennial. Along the way fans will see and hear a salute to Gilbert and Sullivan, the presentation of Ann Arbor's Academy Awards, 'Star Trek' and the 'Greatest Singers' of all time.

Dr. George Cavender again will direct the Marching Band, which represents almost every school and college on campus. "Shows will be new, different, sometimes provocative and even controversial," Cavender says.

In addition to the world's largest Band Day (Baylor game), the annual "Blast from the Past"—featuring one of the largest alumni bands in the nation—is scheduled for Homecoming (Indiana game).

In more than a century of college entertainment and performance, Michigan's marching bands have always been innovative. They were the first to incorporate the use of a public address system on the football in direct coordination with the show, first to have all music specially arranged for their shows and first to have their own arranger.

Their appearances in the Super Bowl and role as the subject of a major network television special were 'firsts' for any Big Ten band.

Michigan's Marching Band is just that—marching more than 28,000 miles annually to prepare its shows.

Band Facts

Conductor—George Cavender
Organized—1859 with 15 members
Present Size—235 members
Band Day—Originated High School Band Day in 1949 by Dr. William Revelli. First event featured 29 bands.
1975 Band Day—Baylor game Sept. 27 with 160 high school bands and 13,500 musicians.
Movies—First Big Ten band to be featured in a 'movie short' by major studio (RKO-Pathe).

Michigan Football Awards

Each year, three special awards are given to players on the Michigan football team. The awards are the John F. Maulbetsch Award, the Meyer Morton Award, and the Frederick C. Matthaei Scholarship Award.

Maulbetsch Award

The John F. Maulbetsch Award is given to the freshman football candidate after spring practice on the basis of desire, character, capacity for leadership and future success both on and off the gridiron. It was established by Frederick C. Matthaei in 1954 in honor of the late John F. Maulbetsch, All-American halfback on the 1914 team.

Meyer Morton Award

The Meyer Morton Award is given to the football player who shows greatest development and most promise as a result of the annual spring practice. The award is given in honor of the late Meyer Morton, noted Big Ten official.

Matthaei Award

The Frederick C. Matthaei Award is given to the junior-to-be gridder who has displayed leadership, drive, and achievement on the athletic field and in the classroom. The award was established by Frederick C. Matthaei in 1968.
